PEOPLES BANK OF ALABAMA HONORS GRADUATES, CHRISTINA JONES AND KEVIN KILPATRICK

CULLMAN, ALABAMA – August 4, 2017 – Peoples Bank of Alabama (PBAL) honors two graduates, Christina Jones and Kevin Kilpatrick, of the Alabama Banking School sponsored by the Alabama Bankers Association. Held at the University of South Alabama in Mobile, this year’s session was the 42nd since the school first began in 1976.

“I am very proud of Christina and Kevin’s success in finishing the three-year course at the Alabama Banking School,” said President, Tim Williams. “And, we are especially excited to announce that Kevin Kilpatrick graduated as the class salutatorian.”

Christina Jones has been with PBAL for 10 years. She currently holds the position of Assistant Loan Officer working with online applications. Kevin Kilpatrick has spent his 31 year banking career working with small business owners to help them build, grow or buy businesses. Kevin is Senior Vice President of GCap Financing, a specialized division of the bank that provides small business loans.

Peoples Bank of Alabama is one of the most convenient banking service providers for consumers and businesses in North Central Alabama. With 26 branches, 33 ATMs and an advanced offering of online and mobile banking services, PBAL is a leader in commercial and retail banking, ebanking and promoting financial literacy in the seven counties it primarily serves. Headquartered in Cullman, AL, FDIC insured PBAL has more than $700 million in assets and is a subsidiary of Altrust Financial Services, Inc., the bank’s parent holding company.
